COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Councilman Joe Garris, Jr. expressed some concerns regarding the closure of one of the lanes of the bridge this past weekend for a foot race. Staff addressed his concerns explaining one lane was closed to ensure runners safety, but for future races due to the traffic issues this caused, an alternate route would be required that did not involve the closing of any of the lanes of the bridge.

STAFF REPORT:

Public Works Director, Mark Acreman gave an update on the ALDOT Access Management Project, along with a Lagoon Pass bridge update.

Assistant Public Works Director, Noel Hand reported with the weather being so nice lately the beaches have been “packed”. Further reporting, the annual grass mowing contract had gone out for bid.

Recreation and Cultural Affairs Director, Grant Brown shared several new features of the City’s website since its revision back in December and noted that it was an evolving process and a good resource for information.

Financial and Administrative Services Director, Cindy King announced the City would be participating in the Alabama Severe Weather Tax Free Holiday February 24 – 26, 2017.

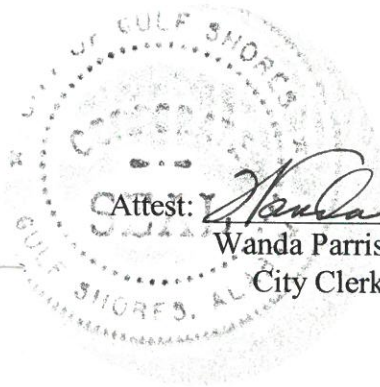

Kevin Corcoran reported the Gulf Shores High School Wrestling Team had 10 wrestlers that qualified to compete at the upcoming State meet.

Chamber President Ed Rodriguez thanked those who participated in the presentation for the members of the Chamber's Leading into Tomorrow Class made up of a select number of high school juniors.

New local resident Cory Mills introduced himself stating he would like to get involved with the city and volunteered his time for community service on a Board or in whatever capacity he is needed.

There being no further business to come before the Council, Councilman Stephen E. Jones moved to adjourn; seconded by Councilman Gary M. Sinak; and the vote of those officials present was unanimously in favor of the motion.

Mayor Robert Craft declared the meeting adjourned at 4:30 p.m.
